

ABSTRACT

5 A correct inversion formula of projections of tomography is proposed by supposing improved deformation of the object (E), that is, comprising translations, rotations and homotheties comparable to uniform dilations. Generalisations to other deformation situations of the object in question and other radiations are possible.